Dear Stan:

Each month I host a luncheon here at our headquarters building in Hartford for the top management group of our Corporation and all of our divisions and subsidiaries, approximately 35 executives.

To this informal gathering, which I believe Wes Kuhrt mentioned to you in earlier correspondence, we invite, as a guest, a leader in a field which is important to us but one that differs from our basic business. We ask our guest to share with us, very informally, his views on a subject of topical interest to him. In the past year we have had Walter Cronkite; Bill Munroe, moderator of Meet The Press; and Donald T. Regan, Chairman of Merrill Lynch, among our guests.

We would very much like to have you join us for our luncheon scheduled for Thursday, February 23, 1978. We would, of course, arrange for your transportation from Washington to Hartford and return. If this is not convenient I would hope that we might work out an alternate date. I believe that you might find the luncheon of considerable interest, and I am certain that we would profit from your being with us.

STAT

I hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

Harry J. Gray
